Carroll	Johns	Riddle

—33—

A quorum present.

Senators Black, Boyle, Mathews and McKenzie were excused from attendance upon the session.

The following prayer was offered by the Chaplain:

"Gracious Lord, we are so weak that without Thy strength we go down under our load. Apart from Thee we can do nothing, but we thank Thee that we can do all things through Christ who strengtheneth us. Help us, O Lord, to rely wholly on Thee for strength, and in our temptations and trials to find that victory in them which Thou hast for us. May the manifestations of our faith during afflictions be convincing to others. Help us not to forsake the leadership of the Spirit, nor to forfeit the place of power like Lot of old; but to live out as Jesus did the first law of spiritual life and power—the life of denying self. Amen."
